Important Information Readily Available

To maximize cost savings and take the most advantage of P&I’s inventory, your team needs to quickly see the products that are important to them. Custom Views and Relevance Sorting make this possible. Others may need quick access to Proof of Delivery documents to help reconcile invoices.

Custom Views

There are several easy ways for your users to find products that are important to them and approved by your organization. Top, contract, and PRO items can help ensure consistency.

Relevance Sorting

Any listing of products will default to “relevance” sorting, which means your contract items and frequently purchased items will “float” to the top of every list.
